

Missouri Livestock Symposium

Classic Tractor Contest Entries Due November 4th

Entry forms for the 2011 Missouri Livestock Symposium Classic Tractor Contest are due November 4th, according to Garry L Mathes, chair of the Symposium planning committee.

The classic tractor contest is co-sponsored by the Missouri Livestock Symposium and KTVO. The winning five tractors will be on display at the 2011 Missouri Livestock Symposium on December 2nd & 3rd at the Kirksville Middle School, 1515 South Cottage Grove, Kirksville, Missouri.

Entry information may be found at <http://www.missourilivestock.com> or by calling 660-665-9866 or 660-341-6625. Or, for needed information you can email Bruce Lane at lanen@missouri.edu and put Classic Tractors in the subject line.

The top 10 tractors will be featured on KTVO's Good Morning Heartland newscast from 6-7 a.m. during the week of November 21-27. The public can then vote online for their favorite tractor from 8 a.m. on November 21 to 5 p.m. November 27, with the top 5 vote getters displaying their tractors at the Missouri Livestock Symposium where the 2011 top tractor will be selected.

The top 5 tractors will be recognized on Friday evening, December 2, in an awards ceremony. The contest is open to residents of the following counties in Missouri: Adair, Chariton, Clark, Knox, Lewis, Linn, Macon, Marion, Monroe, Putnam, Ralls, Randolph, Sullivan, Schuyler, Scotland and Shelby; in Iowa Appanoose, Davis, Jefferson, Monroe, Van Buren and Wapello and in Illinois: Adams and Hancock.

Classic Tractor Contest details or additional information about the Missouri Livestock Symposium can be found at <http://www.missourilivestock.com/> or <http://www.heartlandconnection.com/>.

There is no cost to enter your classic tractor and more than one tractor can be entered if desired.
