

FROM THE DESK OF: Bruce Lane, University of Missouri Extension Livestock Specialist

DATE: April 20, 2005

2005 Northeast Missouri Livestock Person of the Year Applications Due August 2

The Missouri Livestock Symposium would like to announce that applications for Livestock Person of the Year are being accepted. This award is designed to recognize individuals that have made a significant and lasting contribution to the livestock industry in Northeast Missouri. Recipients may be producers, agribusiness personnel, agency personnel, agricultural educators, researchers, or strong supporters of the animal industry in Northeast Missouri.

Eligible applicants must be current or former residents of Northeast Missouri in one of the following counties: Adair, Clark, Knox, Lewis, Linn, Macon, Marion, Monroe, Pike, Putnam, Randolph, Ralls, Schuyler, Scotland, Shelby, or Sullivan. The award may be given posthumously.

The recipient will be recognized on Friday evening, December 2 at the Missouri Livestock Symposium with a plaque and the unveiling of an oil portrait of the recipient. The portrait will be displayed throughout the year and annually at the Symposium.

If any group or individual would like to nominate someone for this award, contact your local Extension office, Garry Mathes 660-665-7049, or Bruce Lane at 660-665-9866 for information or application materials.

If you have access to the web, 2005 Northeast Missouri Livestock Person of the Year applications can be downloaded at <http://missourilivestock.com>. Nominations and completed applications are due in the Adair County Extension Center, 503 E. Northtown Rd., Kirksville, MO 63501 no later than August 2 at 5 p.m.

If you need these materials in an alternative format, please contact Bruce Lane at the Adair County Extension Center at the above address. University of Missouri Extension does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, religion, age, disability or status as a Vietnam-era veteran in employment or programs.